

MEDIA & COMMUNICATIONS INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Are you a current media and communications student with an interest in human rights? Would you like to gain experience with a local NGO and make a difference?

Perkumpulan Aksara is currently looking for a Media and Communications Intern to assist with the implementation of the 2017/2018 communications strategy.

About Aksara

Founded in 2007, Aksara is a local non-governmental organisation based in Yogyakarta, working in gender equality and women's rights. Major focus areas include: strengthening local governance, gender mainstreaming and disaster risk reduction. The organisation also conducts campaigns and research across the intersection of gender and disability, as well as children's rights.

Internship Details

Commencement Date: July 31, 2017

Hours: 2 days / week 11.00 - 15.00 for a period of 6 months

Key Selection Criteria:

- Strong verbal and written communication skills in both Bahasa Indonesia and English
- High level of organisational and willingness to learn
- Enthusiasm and commitment
- Competence across social media platforms
- Knowledge of local and national media
- Creative thinking

As an intern with Aksara, you will have the opportunity to attend meetings with local government, other NGOs, and women's groups. You will learn about the history of human rights in Indonesia, and internationally, and what issues the country and world currently face. Upon completion of the internship, your communication skills will be strengthened ensuring you will be a capable communications professional able to thrive in future jobs.

To apply for the role, please contact Pipit by Friday 30 June 2017. The interview will take place in July 2017.